

Your school nurse or other health care staff needs to be part of planning your Let's Fight Flu Together! clinic. They may volunteer to help administer the vaccines at your clinic, collect permission forms for students or gain the approval (if needed) from school district healthcare staff. Discuss the Let's Fight Flu Together! program with the health care staff at your school early in your efforts to plan for your clinic. The following document links will be helpful for your discussion with your school nurse.
